This 2007 project expanded and rehabilitated a recently purchased facility of 35,000 square feet of existing multi-tenant office space. The actual changes involve the addition of nearly 30,000 square feet of office space and construction of a 280 space, three level parking garage.

The Arizona Disability Empowerment Campus will become the future home for eight non-profit and three governmental organizations that serve people with disabilities in Phoenix and throughout Arizona. It is a state of the art, universally designed, accessible and transit-oriented non-profit disability resources campus to serve the community.

Community Impact

The Arizona Disability Empowerment Campus will be a state of the art, universally designed, accessible and transit-oriented non-profit disability resources campus to serve the community. The ADEC will include organizations such as Arizona Bridge to Independent Living, Arizona Center for Disability Law, Raising Special Kids, Arizona Spinal Cord Injury Association, Arizona Chapter of the Paralyzed Veterans Association, Governor's Council on Developmental Disabilities, Statewide Independent Living Council, Valley Center for the Deaf, Arizona Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society and many more. The ADEC will serve as a national model for accessible design, including accessible technology design with state of the art video conferencing and captioning capabilities.
